Welcome to Trinity

We welcome all visitors and new comers who have come to join us as we pray and give thanks, praise and worship, and learn about the word of God here at Trinity.

Feel free to meet us downstairs in the auditorium after the service for coffee.

THOUGHTS FROM MY CHAIR

from Canon Frances

From time to time we are asked to choose a psalm for a favourite occasion. Many people automatically choose the 23rd Psalm, I never do. It is one of the most meaningful and beautiful psalms but it often seems to be the only one people know. I am going to suggest when you have a relaxing moment, sit down and soak up the psalms.

As you read, think of the people who sang them several thousand years ago. How did they draw nearer to God as they sang? How do we draw nearer to Him?

Time and space does not allow me to do more than start out with you. You may remember being taught at Sunday School that the Book of Psalms is in the very centre of the Bible. Give a little thought to the fact that worship needs to be the very centre of our lives. I open my Bible up in the centre (allowing for concordance and index at the back) my eye falls on Psalm 27, wonderful! That is a great hymn of confidence and joy. "I will sing and make melody to the Lord." (Psalm 26:6). Then my eye falls on Psalm 24. The Jewish people used to sing this as they went up to Jerusalem, for the Feast of Passover. Think of them singing this psalm as they reach the Holy City and enter the Temple. Another imaginary thought; a picture in my mind of the people of Trinity singing it as they go up our hill to church.

Here is Psalm 25, when I was able to read I was given my first Bible. On the flyleaf was inscribed, "Lead me in they truth and teach me." (Psalm 25:5B)

In spite of myself I am being led to the 23rd Psalm. "The Lord is my shepherd I shall not want." Does that mean that with the Lord to look after us we will have everything we want? No, it comes to me as I read, with the Lord to look after us, we have no need for anything else and, "I will dwell in the hours of the Lord forever." (Psalm 23:6)

THANK YOU

Dear Trinity Family

Thank you all for your prayers, flowers, phone calls, visits and cards over the last few weeks while I have been recuperating from Heart Surgery. Thanks also to Rev. Elizabeth and Fr. Andrew for your hospital visits to me in Southlake. All of your well-wishes have helped in my recovery.

Sincerely, Keith Caldwell

February, 2011

To the people of Trinity
Church, Barrie:
Grace and peace to you in the name of our Lord. Thank you for your generous support of FaithWorks in 2010!

We have just finished reviewing the results of last year's parish appeal and I was delighted to learn that Trinity Church, Barrie has once again been generous in supporting FaithWorks. Your Parish Campaign raised $2,625. Congratulations!

I am personally grateful to every member of the congregation who helped to make your parish campaign such a success. It is your support and concern for those who are in need that helped the Diocese to raise more than $1.5 million in last year's FaithWorks campaign.

The gospel compels us, indeed I would say offers us, the privilege of helping those in need. We are told when we help the least of those around it is as though we are helping Jesus himself.

On behalf of the thousands of individuals and families throughout our Diocese - and around the world -who will be helped by one of our FaithWorks Community Ministries or Partners this year, I offer my deepest gratitude for your generosity.

Yours faithfully,

The Right Reverend M.
George H. Elliott Bishop of
